Motion for immediate hearing

Plaintiff demands an immediate hearing in his FRCP 65 equity petitions for two injunctions, one vs. respondent Page and his illegal false imprisonment and false arrest policy guarding secrecy of open-to-the public judicial conferences, and the other vs. city of Franklin for its unconstitutional system of general warrants in violation of T.C.A. § 40-7-103 and the federal fourth amendment.

The court receives petitioner's certified U.S. mail petitions Feb. 23, 2023, Thursday. Today is Wednesday. Respondents do not answer within 24 hours. The court did not within 24 hours order respondents to bar.

Petitioner demands a hearing immediately, if not sooner, about his demands per right for equitable relief of ongoing and unceasing harm, wrong and breach. Plaintiff faces continuing irreparable harm as a journalist intending to cover the next Tennessee judicial conference, and continuing oppression as a U.S. citizen who has a right to visit Franklin today and to be free of warrantless arrest in violation of state and federal law.

Plaintiff demands the matter of his public interest claims in equity be expedited for instant disposition.

As petitioner is anchor at the NoogaRadio Network microphone 6 a.m. to 9 a.m. central time, he asks the hearing be set for the next afternoon docket.

Respectfully submitted,

David Jonathan Tulis
